The Court ruled that any Cashier, Trensurer or other authorized agent of a Corporation is not holden, nor is his hond, beyond the part of a year, If so elected, or beyond a year. The bond is abcolotely renewable. Defendants were discharged.

Burnside Grands is the using indepted by the new military o mpany referred to in our columns yesterday. There are now eighty-eight names on their muster roll. A meeting was held to the lowhall of the Sinte House, last evenly g. at which the Friendless to be given by the Now part. Glee Cub. following officers were elected :

Captain, Agron Buchspan, 1st Lieutenant, Thomas G. Williams 2nd Licotenaut, Charles H. Roberts.

Brig, Gen, Nathaniel Church, and Brig Gen. Tow were present and presided at the election of officers. Col Synn, of the Old Gaurd, was also clock indicating the time of day, the day of the present, with other military men.

Dorling the evening the Company were drilled and exceroised by Mr. Lewis J. Cobb, a veteran lives and Stockholders for his thoughtful and of the 14th Rhode Island Regiment, and exhibit, timely liberality. ed a proficioncy that was quite creditable to both them and the drill efficers.

At the close of the election of officers, Brig. Gen. Church addressed the Company congratulating them on their selection of a name, on their changes and will abide by the proposed terms organization, the very favorable circumstances under which it had been accomplished, and on their line arrived at Fort Yuma. There is much excite election of officers to command them, as well as ment at Prescott over the discovery of placers on of them as an addition to the First Brigade of Prescott. Gen. Tew next addressed the Company. He was, he said, no speech maker, did not like to make a speech, in fact didn't know how; but, he too, would congratulate them on their organization, and on the great charge which had taken place in regard to themselves as a case; five millions of the colored race had been amancipated from the thruldon of slavery both to Southern teakmasters and public opinion, which debarred them from the thruldon of slavery both to Southern teakmasters and public opinion, which debarred them from the thruldon of slavery both to Southern teakmasters and public opinion, which debarred them from the thruldon of slavery both to Southern teakmasters and public opinion, which debarred them from the thruldon of slavery both to Southern teakmasters and public opinion, which debarred them from the sking the position to which, as members of the challern whore parents are so related—sometimes as many as four from one family, and in the case of their fitness for the change we had before us, to-night. He had seen them tried before, when he had stood shoulder to shoulder with them on the battle field, and he was glad to say they were not found wanting. He trusted they would be united and grow in numbers and infinence, avoid.

**Next team of the Keutecky Institution for the Education and Training of Peeble-minded Children had a report to the Legislature, in which they call attention to a practice which they call attention to a practice which they the Legislature, in which they call attention to a practice which they call attention to a practice which they the Legislature, in which they call attention to a practice of the training of feetheminded of the blad, a limited percentage of fert couries. The charitable them the dispersion united and grow in numbers and infinence, avoiding party jealousies, which if allowed to get a foot hold in their ranks would distract and destroy

Gen. Tew then introduced Mr. B. W. Pearce to the Company, who he said would address them.

Mr. Pearce said he was not prepared to make a speech,-did not come for that purpose; his business was to report speeches not to make them, and he had come here to night to report the sayngs and doings of this meeting. He was happy to say however, that he should have a good report to make of this meeting, to morrow; a finer appearing body of men, he had rarely seen on such

Re was no military man, unver in fact, chouldered a musket in his life, though perhaps he should be ashamed to admit it, and was consequently the last person to address a company of military men. He had however been pleased, as he had previously remarked with what he had seen this evening and trusted that with united ranks they would go is every evidence that this man could nover forward to establish themselves a reputation in the community.

Col. Swan was next introduced. He had been a military man for some twenty years, though be had never esen ective service. He had been Watus assisting. Comp., March 2, 1862.—Dr. W. Grege.—Dear Gir.—Having seen your advertisement of constitution water, recommended for ind management of the Kidneys and Irritation of the Bladeer, having suffered for the pest three years, and kided the skill of a number of physicians with only temporary relief, I was induced to try your medicine. I procured one bostle of your agents at Hartford, Mesers. Lee, Siteman & Co., and when I had used half of it, to my sulprire, I lone a great changer in my health. I have used also for it, and any whete I never expected to be tuny life, well, and in good spirita. I cannot express my gratitude for it i feel that it is all and more than your recommend it to be.
